

17. Sr. Ignatia Jagoditsch
June 16, 1883

+
+
+ + + + +
+
+
+

Sister Ignatia Jagoditsch

Only two weeks after the Angel of Death had taken Sister Julia Meyers from our midst another one of our members, namely Sister M. Ignatia formerly Anna Jagoditsch, of New London, Wisconsin, was called to her reward. She died after a lingering illness, at the Motherhouse, in the thirty-fourth year of her age and the ninth of her religious life. As a teacher she was exact in her duties. She also possessed the virtue of obedience in a high degree and was much given to prayer. Hence, the Sisters have, through this death, obtained another intercessor in heaven. So they may at least confidently hope.