Sister Ursula Wagner, OSF

On the eve of Christmas, 1883, Sister M. Ursula, formerly Barbara Wagner of Joliet, Illinois, died of heart disease at the Motherhouse, in the thirty-second year of her age and the thirteenth of her religious life. She had for some years previous been a great sufferer from eczema, and she bore her afflictions with truly Christian patience to the end. She had proved herself a good religious and a zealous and conscientious teacher wherever she had been engaged, and was much beloved by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.
