

SISTER M. LUDOVICA DANNENMUELLER      NUMBER      7
DATE OF DEATH: NOVEMBER 29, 1879
DATE OF BIRTH:      JUNE 16, 1865

On November 29, 1879, Sister M. Ludovica Dannenmueller, a novice, died of consumption at the Motherhouse in the 15th year of her age. Although ailing for some time and no hopes of her recovery being entertained she begged to receive the holy habit of the order. The Mother Superior at length granted her request, having sought the advice of the Reverend Director, Sister Ludovica was admitted to her vows a few days before she departed from this life. Having come to the convent when she was scarcely 13 years of age, a dear, innocent child, she won the hearts of young and old on account of her amiable disposition. She was sister of Sister Raymond who entered religion a few years earlier.
