Sister M. Christine Osthoff

Sister M. Christine Osthoff, a half-sister of Sister M. Ambrose Osthoff, died of consumption at the Motherhouse on October 3, 1881 in the twenty-second year of her age and in the eighth of her religious life. She had been stationed at Eau Claire, Wisconsin, but was recalled to Joliet in 1879, where her services were needed to assist in teaching music in the academy. She was as gentle and unassuming as a little child, beloved by all who knew her.
