Sister Albertine Kalal, OSF

On July 26, 1895, Sister M. Albertine, formerly Mary Kalal of Chicago, died at St. Wenceslas' mission house in Chicago in the nineteenth year of her age and the second year of her novitiate. In the beginning of the second year of her novitiate her health began to decline and it was evident that she would not regain it. She patiently bore the trials of her illness and was wholly resigned to God's holy decrees in her behalf. Her remains were interred in the Bohemian cemetery at Norwood, Illinois.
