

84. Sister Loyola Langan
January 30, 1910

*
*
* * * * *
*
*
*

Sister Loyola Langan

On January 30th Sister M. Loyola, formerly Mary Langan of Mansfield, Ohio, died at the Motherhouse in the twenty-fifth year of her age and the fifth of her religious life. Not long after her reception a decline of health became apparent which soon developed into virulent lung trouble. Being young and ambitious, the trial at first seemed too great to be borne, but later on she became reconciled to her fate and died resigned to God's Holy Will.